Passport to Prom 2026

How Do I Earn Prom Points?

- * Attending Revision evening Wednesday 22nd = 5 Prom points
- Attending Lunch time clubs (not Maths or English)= 1 Prom Point
- 10 positive points = 1 Prom point (Teachers will be giving them so work hard)
- Completing Homework to a high standard- Sparx- completing 1 hour will get you 2 Positive points.
- Science- 3 homeworks a week (1 from each teacher), 1 positive homework point for each homework completed.
- Improvements from Year 10 Mocks to Nov Mocks and so on =5 Prom points

Attendance Matters

- 100% Attendance per week = 1 Prom point per week

How I can lose Prom Points

- Continually wearing the incorrect uniform = -1 Prom Point
- Stage 4 and being in reflection = -5 Prom Points
- No show for Mocks = -5
- Not writing anything in mocks = -5
- No homework completed = -1 (Friday lunch time)
- Receiving an internal or external exclusion = No Prom

How I can lose Prom Points

In addition:

Failure to attend an actual examination, or attending without making a genuine attempt (e.g. head on the desk), may result in:

- Being charged the exam entry fee
- Withdrawal of prom invitation

How many points do I need?

35 Prom points = An Invitation.

Last year almost 95% of students were invited to the prom, we want as many students there as possible.

Remember- Prom is a privilege not a right.
